

Janet Kaufman

Board President

Janet Kaufman is a retired librarian with expertise in information services and library management, and was president of the Ontario Library Association in 2006. In the past 15 years, Janet has served on the Boards of Trellis Mental Health and Development Services, Community Torchlight, Onward Willow, Family and Children's Services of Guelph-Wellington, the Guelph-Wellington-Dufferin District Health Council, and currently serves on the Board of the Guelph Community Health Centre. Janet has a B.A. from the University of Waterloo and an M.L.S. from the University of Toronto.

Molly Kriksic Vice-President

Molly Kriksic has a passionate concern for inclusion and the seamless integration of all participants as a consultant in the field of sport and recreation for children and youth. Her career has been focused in the not-for-profit charitable sector which along with administration and programming duties has also meant extensive fundraising and special event planning. She has degree in Recreation and Leisure Studies from the University of Waterloo and post graduate certificates in fundraising, public relations and leadership for Executive Directors.

For twenty years Molly was involved, as a volunteer and then as Executive Director, with Rainbow Programmes for Children, a summer day camp in Guelph providing quality programs that embraces diversity and each individual's uniqueness and abilities. She was instrumental in getting Rainbow accredited with HIGH FIVE®, Canada's quality standard for children's recreation and sport. As a consultant to HIGH FIVE, she developed online training in policy and procedures, review and evaluation of programs, and dealing with children with a mental health disorder. She has been the recipient of the HIGH FIVE Trainer Excellence Award and continues as a Verifier for Accreditation.

Craig Dieterle Secretary-Treasurer

Craig Dieterle is a Chartered Accountant currently working for a building products manufacturing and distributor having earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Wilfrid Laurier University. In his previous employment as an auditor and he has worked with various not-for-profits in the community completing review and audit engagements. Craig Dieterle acted as the previous Treasurer for CMHA Grand River Branch and will continue in this role for the amalgamated CMHA Waterloo Wellington Dufferin Branch entity.

Lynda Davenport

Lynda Davenport has been a Registered Nurse for 44 years. She has recently retired from the University of Guelph where she was the Director of Student Health Services for over 15 years. Lynda's career in healthcare has included working in hospitals, psychiatry, long term care, retirement home industry, community nursing, teaching diploma Nursing students, occupational health and a partnership in a health and wellness education company.

Over the years Lynda has been a Board Member and volunteer for a number of health care, post secondary and local community organizations some of which include: Wellington-Dufferin-Guelph Public Health (Board Chair), WWLHIN, Conestoga College (Board Chair), Association of Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology of Ontario (Board Chair), Registered Nurses Association of Ontario, Waterloo District Health Council (Board Chair), CADS, Friends of the Guelph Public Library, Guelph and Wellington Vital Signs Advisory Committee and Guelph Physician Recruitment and Retention Committee. Lynda has a lifelong commitment to health and wellbeing for individuals and for the community.

Rebecca Dufour

Rebecca Dufour is the learning support coordinator at a local high school where she also teaches English Literature. With an expertise in working with youth who have learning disabilities and mental health concerns, she has extensive knowledge of best practices for teaching and learning in the areas of inclusion and assistive technologies.

Rebecca also has her specialist qualification in Special Education and is currently pursuing a Master's degree in Educational Leadership.

Donnamarie Dunk

Donnamarie Dunk is a Corporate Performance Consultant and Leadership Coach. She has served both the public and private sectors in the Hi-Tech, Manufacturing and Health Care industries in the areas of Human Resources, Quality, Risk and Change Management. Donnamarie served as the Senior Director Planning, Integration and Community Engagement of the WWLHIN and was responsible for developing the Regions first Integrated Health

Serves Strategic Plan. In addition, she has provided leadership in the development of a Corporate Performance Management Dashboard software solution for the health care industry, developed the HR infrastructure for a Hi-Tech company positioned for an IPO, directed the Accreditation and ISO certification processes for HR, Quality and Risk, consulted on the restructuring of a community based health service delivery agency to increase service capacity, provided HR leadership in the merger between an assembly and manufacturing company, led Change Management initiatives for service delivery model in a mental health facility, successfully negotiated a number of collective agreements with multiple unions, provided consultative services in the windup activities of a health service agency, established an off shore Hi-Tech venture in China and has designed and presented numerous Leadership Development learning events. Donnamarie received her Human Resources Professional Certification from the University of Guelph, BRE in Counselling from Emmanuel Bible College and Professional Coaching Certification from Erickson College. Her professional and community based contributions have given her a reputation as a collaborative and engaging leader that gets results.

Patrick Fradley-Davis

Patrick Fradley-Davis is certified human resources professional with expertise in health, compensation and benefits. In the past 29 years, he has worked with a variety of health organizations in support of the utility industry.

Patrick holds a Certified Human Resources Professional designation from the Human Resources Professionals Association of Ontario.

Krista Hall

Krista Hall is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA, CA) currently working as a Senior Accountant for BDO Canada. Through her role she leads a variety of audit teams, including numerous not-for-profit organizations within the community. Krista obtained both her Bachelor of Accounting and Masters of Accounting degrees at the University of Waterloo.

Peter Kastner

Peter Kastner recently retired as President of Vestigo Corporation, an Internet based inventory management service located in Guelph, Ontario, where he was the original Angel Investor. From 1981 to 1998 Peter held a number of executive positions with Nortel Networks including Vice President of Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A). During his tenure with Nortel, Peter was also a registered lobbyist. Prior to joining Nortel, he held a number of management and audit positions with Revenue Canada. Peter also served as the President of The Wesbell Group, a private corporation, providing both Logistics and Telecom Equipment services.

Peter is a Chartered Professional Accountant – CPA and holds the Distinguished Service Award from The Certified General Accountants Association of Ontario.

His prior volunteer activities have included the Tax Executives Institute, Certified General Accountants Association, Kitchener-Waterloo and Peel United Way Campaigns and political Riding Associations.

Peter is a board member and former President of the Board of the Canadian Mental Health Association- Waterloo Wellington Dufferin Branch (CMHA WWD) as well as Governor on the Board for CMHA-Ontario Division. Peter was a Director and President of Trellis Mental Health and Developmental Services in Guelph. Peter is a member of the Guelph Community Foundation's Investment Committee. He is the current Chair of the Rural Wellington Health Advisory Committee and he is a member of the City of Guelph Economic Development Advisory Committee (GEDAC).

Jacqueline Marshall

Jacqueline Marshall is a Fraud & Security specialist with 16 years' experience in the Telecommunications industry. She is an Associate Member of the Certified Fraud Examiners Association and holds a Criminology degree from the University of Toronto and the University of Liverpool and is currently working towards an MSW at the University of Waterloo.

Dian Shannon

Dian has been involved in community service for over 30 years, including service as a Board member for the Alzheimer Society of Cambridge, the Food Bank of Waterloo Region, and Core Literacy. As well, Dian has been a volunteer with the Business-Education Partnership Speakers' Bureau and is a past member of the Editorial Advisory Committee and contributing author for Ontario Long Term Care Association magazine (LTC Magazine).

Dian's work experience includes 25 years working with elders and their families in long term care. Currently, Dian is the General Manager at "The Westmount" Chartwell Retirement Residence. Prior to working with elders, Dian was a Certified Addictions Counsellor for Alcontrol Homes (Waterloo). Dian has also been involved with Canadian Healthcare Association as an Educational Consultant in their Senior Management Program.

Dian has a passion for advocacy and ensuring access to services for those affected by mental illness, especially elders and youth. As well, Dian enjoys serving as an educator, developing teams and relationship-building processes, and is taking courses at the University of Waterloo to complete a long-neglected Bachelor of Arts (Psychology) degree.